

JOINT SIMPLIFIED
DISSOLUTION OF MARRIAGE

INFORMATION AND INSTRUCTIONS

PROVIDED BY THE LAKE COUNTY CIRCUIT CLERK

This packet is being provided to you along with the necessary forms for filing a joint simplified petition for dissolution of marriage. This type of dissolution procedure is not available to everyone – there are limitations on, among other items, the length of the marriage, the amount of property owned and income of the parties. You should read this brochure carefully to see if this procedure is available to you. This brochure also includes general information on dissolutions of marriages and instructions for completing the forms.

GENERAL INFORMATION CONCERNING JOINT SIMPLIFIED DISSOLUTION OF MARRIAGE

A dissolution of marriage (commonly referred to as a divorce) is a serious legal step which should not be taken without considerable thought. If you are considering such a proceeding, you should note the following:

- It is in the best interests of each of the parties to consult attorneys regarding the dissolution of their marriage, and that the service of attorneys may be obtained.
- The parties should not rely exclusively on the brochure, and the brochure is intended only as a guide for self-representation.
- If the parties waive their rights to maintenance, neither party can in the future obtain maintenance from the other.
- A judgment of dissolution of marriage permanently adjudicates all financial rights arising out of your marriage, including the right to property in the name of one's spouse and the right to support from one's spouse (maintenance or alimony), that a judgment is final, and the parties waive their right to appeal, except that neither party is barred from instituting an action to set aside a final judgment for fraud, duress, accident, mistake, or other grounds at law or in equity.
- The parties to the marriage remain married persons and cannot remarry until a judgment dissolving the marriage is entered.

WHO MAY USE THE JOINT SIMPLIFIED DISSOLUTION OF MARRIAGE PROCEDURE?

To use the Joint Simplified Dissolution of Marriage procedure, the following must apply to you and your spouse.

- Irreconcilable differences have caused the irretrievable breakdown of your marriage. All efforts at reconciliation of the differences have failed and future attempts at reconciliation would not be in the best interest of you and your spouse.
- You and your spouse must have lived separate and apart for at least six months and you must be willing to waive the requirement for a two year separation before obtaining a dissolution on the grounds of irreconcilable differences.
- You must have been married less than eight (8) years and either you or your spouse (or both) must have lived in the State of Illinois for at least ninety (90) days immediately prior to filing for the dissolution.
- No children were born to or adopted by you and your spouse during your relationship and the wife is not now pregnant.
- Your joint, annual, gross income from all sources must be less than $35,000.00. The total value of marital property you and your spouse own, less any encumbrances (amount owed on the property, such as the amount owed on a car loan), must be less than $10,000.00. Neither you nor your spouse may own any real estate. Neither you nor your spouse may have a gross annual income in excess of $20,000.00
- You and your spouse each must be willing to permanently give up any right to maintenance (alimony).
- You and your spouse must have disclosed to each other all assets each of you have, and disclosed all tax returns filed during your marriage.
- You and your spouse must sign a written agreement dividing between yourselves all marital assets worth more than $100.00 and dividing responsibility for all debts and liabilities. You must divide the property and sign and exchange all documents (such as automobile titles, etc.) necessary to carry out the agreement before any court hearing.

- You and your spouse must waive any right you may have to a bifurcated hearing on your dissolution petition (a hearing held in two parts, one to decide the issues related to granting the dissolution and another to decide any property of other issues).

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THE FORMS

There are three forms which must be completed for obtaining a joint simplified dissolution of marriage. All of these forms have been drafted to self-explanatory and as easy to complete as possible.

Forms: Joint Affidavit Regarding Separation of the Parties, Division of Property and Waiver of Bifurcated Hearing

Joint Petition for Simplified Dissolution of Marriage

Judgment for Dissolution of Marriage

With all three forms, you should either type the necessary information or neatly print the information in ink. Fill out all forms completely. Your Circuit Clerk will insert the number (“No.”) on the Affidavit, Petition and Judgment. Even though this is a “Joint” petition, one of the parties must be designated as “Petitioner” and the other must be designated as a “Respondent”. Traditionally, the party seeking the dissolution is the petitioner.

The “Joint Petition for Simplified Dissolution of Marriage” and the “Joint Affidavit Regarding Separation of the Parties, Division of Property and Waiver of Bifurcated Hearing” must be signed in front of a Notary Public. You should file a copy of your written agreement dividing marital assets, debts and liabilities at the time you file the Petition.

The “Judgment of Dissolution of Marriage” need not be signed in front of a Notary, but should be completed and signed by both parties (below the words “Approved as to Form and Content”) before your hearing. The Judge will complete the “Entered” line and sign the Judgment if the dissolution is granted.

The fee to file for the dissolution is $271.00 payable to the Lake County Circuit Clerk, cash, money order or Discover Card only, NO PERSONAL CHECKS.

You may make your own copies prior to filing or pay the Lake County Circuit Clerk $2.00 for the first copy and $.50 for each additional copy; cash, money order or Discover Card only, NO PERSONAL CHECKS.

Forms must be notarized prior to filing, the Clerk cannot notarize for you.

If the wife wishes to return to her maiden or former name, you should complete paragraphs 11 and C of the PETITION and paragraphs 11 and D of the JUDGMENT.

In addition to these three forms, the Circuit Clerk will give you a Certificate of Dissolution of Marriage which you must complete.

Other than providing this packet and these forms, Circuit Clerks are prohibited by law from giving any legal advice.
